The 4th session of the LSV Female Leadership Network will be held on Wednesday, 13 November 2013 from 6:30pm at Life Saving Victoria - 200 The Boulevard, Port Melbourne. Duration: 6:30pm – 8:30pm (approximately)

This session will aim to build on the success of the first 3 sessions of the network, by offering an interactive panel session, encouraging participants to explore new ideas, gain exposure to interesting philosophies and be presented with a range of beneficial tools to utilise for 2013/14 season.

This session is open to all females in the LSV Female Leadership Network, who are looking to enhance their own personal profile, network with likeminded females and further develop their leadership potential.

About the LSV Female Leadership Network

The Life Saving Victoria Female Leadership Network is open to all Females 18+ within the movement including staff and volunteer members from all roles and facets that have a genuine interest in networking, personal growth and professional development.

The objectives of the network are:

- to enhance the development of our female leaders and our future leaders
- create an environment that encourages socialisation and positive relationships between female participants
- encourage further involvement and opportunities for females in the lifesaving movement
- develop leadership skills through a variety of activities, keynote speakers and networking events
- provide the opportunity to develop new networks within lifesaving
- provide the opportunity to develop broader professional networks that extend beyond lifesaving and into professional industries and everyday life
- partner with other areas of lifesaving to encourage collaboration across all areas of the movement
- provide mentoring opportunities to female leaders within lifesaving

Networking, mentoring and workshop events are planned to take place throughout the year

Session 4 Wednesday, 13 November 2013 – Life Saving Victoria

Lifesaving Panel– What's in your tool bag for the season ahead?

Session Details:

The 4th session of the LSV Female leadership Network will held on Wednesday, 13 November 2013 from 6:30pm at Life Saving Victoria - 200 The Boulevard, Port Melbourne. Duration: 6:30pm – 8:30pm (approximately)

This session will consist of a panel of Lifesaving Female Leaders who will share their knowledge, ideas, expertise and personal insight into their positions and approach in lifesaving and their professional life. This session is aimed to be thought provoking by sharing new ideas and philosophies from female leaders within the lifesaving movement, whilst linking back to those key themes of personal brand, communication, values, time management and how you can best utilise these tools for the season ahead.

The session will kick off at 6:30pm, with drinks and nibbles served in the bar, with additional time to network upon completion of the workshop.
