Subject: Lifesaving Services / Club Captains Conference – 20 September

Action: Return Registration form by 5.00 pm Wednesday, 17 September

As a prelude to the 2008 / 2009 Season, Life Saving Victoria is conducting a one day conference at LSV HQ, Port Melbourne commencing at 9.30 am on Saturday 20 September.

The day will comprise key information for the 2008 / 2009 season, specialist external speakers on a range of topics, and workshops on major decisions facing our lifesaving services in coming years.

Whilst the program is still being refined, we are anticipating presentations as follows:

Key Information for the Patrol Season

- Gear Inspections and the new internet managed inspection process
- Patrol Efficiency Competition and Patrol Audit details
- Minimum Standards and Patrol Protocols
- Managing defaults and partial patrols
- Radio Communications Network

Specialist Presenters

- Safety First – developing a safety culture on our beaches
- CSIRO research into Great White Sharks in Australian waters
- EPA beach water quality monitoring program, and how to make use of the results
- Victoria Water Police and Volunteer Lifesaving Services – a healthy partnership
- Setting up, managing and learning from a training scenario or exercise
- What is your club or patrols community image and how can it be enhanced
- New lifesaving qualifications, 33rd Edition review of the blue book, and future ambitions

- Marine Safety Victoria – where clubs fit!

There will be a cost of $25 per attendee to cover lunch and resources

Please return the attached registration form by Wednesday 17 September marked for the attention of Richarda Goodwin. A full agenda will be provided to delegates prior to the conference.
