What is the Leaders Masterclass about?
The aim of the Leaders Masterclass is to provide an opportunity for existing leaders within Lifesaving (at all levels) to participate in a high-level leadership development program. The Masterclass will provide participants with an environment that will enable them to refresh and extend their leadership capabilities. No leaders’ Masterclass is ever the same; with participants’ guiding the program content based on their identified development needs.

Who can apply?
The target audience includes committee members i.e. Presidents, deputy presidents, lifesaving, surf sports and junior/youth roles at club, state or national levels who aspire to remain and progress in their leadership roles in the future (next 3 years).

When and where?
The SLSA Leaders' Masterclass 2014 will be held Thursday, 29 May – Sunday, 1 June 2014 at the Australian Emergency Management Institute (AEMI), Mt Macedon Victoria.

Why should I apply?
Refresh and extend your leadership capabilities
Gain awareness of issues, responsibilities and accountabilities in leadership within SLSA
The challenges of leading and managing a club and addressing some of the current societal issues
Become an innovative, skilled and knowledgeable leader
Network and share ideas regarding leadership issues in lifesaving

How much does it cost?
Attendance for Victorian members (who do not require SLSA to cover travel expenses), is a subsidised fee of $300.00 (including gst). For those that live outside of Melbourne, attendance at the SLSA Leaders' Masterclass is $520 (including gst). This is all inclusive of airfares, transfers, accommodation, meals and conference materials.

How to apply?
To apply, applicants must complete the application form and ensure it has been endorsed by their club, and state. Applications have been extended and must be submitted to Life Saving Victoria (LSV) by Thursday, 17 April 2014 – applications will then be reviewed by LSV and preferred candidates put forward to SLSA.
