BUSINESS BOOTCAMP PROGRAM OUTLINE

The Business Boot Camp program comprises of a 3 day program, with three modules delivered by the Australian Institute of Company Directors; accompanied by relevant supporting sessions and inspiring insight from leaders within sport, business and the community

The program will include structured skills development sessions, keynote speakers and workshops, concluding with a networking lunch.

The Program will include:

- An interactive panel which will explore the ways in which women lead and how effective leaders can improve board and organisational outcomes and performance.
- Decision Making – how Board's make informed decisions and how this affects organisational outcomes.
- Introduction to the Strategic Role of the Director (AICD unit) - develop an understanding of the role strategic planning plays in the long-term health of the organisation.
- Risk Issues for Directors (AICD unit) - how risks are identified and measured by the Board
- Introductions to financial statements from the Directors perspective (AICD unit).

Upon course completion participants will obtain the AICD Foundations of Directorship Program.

Networking Lunch

The Business Boot Extension Program will conclude with a Networking Lunch, with a number of current and former Board Members, from LSV, business and community participating, providing participants with a unique insight into individual challenges, strengths and leadership journey's.

PROGRAM COST

Supported by the Australian Sports Commissions', Women Leaders in Sport Grant Program, the cost for the program is $300 (excluding GST) per participant for the three days.

Program Value is $2000 per person

LSV will invoice clubs for the cost of the Program; it will be up to each club and participant to agree on how much each party will contribute.
