The Australian Resuscitation Council’s - 12th International “Spark of Life” Conference will be held on:

9th-11th of May 2019
International Convention Centre Sydney
Darling Harbour

The 12th annual conference has a theme of “Resuscitation – it's about time” where the scientific content of the program promises to deliver the latest resuscitation science and importantly its translation to resuscitation practice, thereby strengthening each of the links in the “chain of survival”.

A faculty of international and Australian speakers with expertise in many facets of resuscitation and the conference program is designed to ensure the content will be relevant and informative to all involved in resuscitation teaching and practice.

Consistent with previous Spark of Life conferences, a significant Trade Exhibition will give conference participants the opportunity to view and explore the latest in resuscitation equipment and training materials.
